

Municipal Building, Lodi, Cal., July 21, 1914.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi met in adjourned regular session at 8:00 p.m. President Hale presided, all members being present.

This meeting having been set as the time for hearing of testimony for and against the granting to Paul D. Showalter a license to construct a saloon at No. 103 East Pine street, in the City of Lodi, the attention of the Trustees and others was called to the application for such license and a protest against the granting of same, signed by 274 residents of Lodi, which application and protest were regularly filed in the office of the City Clerk in accordance with the provisions of Ordinance No. 78.

The meeting was addressed by T. C. Hawley, S. W. McCleary and E. A. Benedict in opposition to the granting of the license, and A. E. Dutschke in favor of the same.

The Chairman requested that all present who had anything to say either for or against the proposition should speak.

No further arguments being presented Trustee Deaver moved that the license be granted. The motion was seconded by Trustee Keeney. The motion was put and upon roll call was lost by the following vote: Ayes--Deaver and Keeney. Noes--Black, Folendorf and Hale. Absent--None.

No further business appearing the Board adjourned.

Attest:

H. S. Clark
City Clerk.
